REPORTER
BRENT STREMEL
West Bank, B.C. Canada

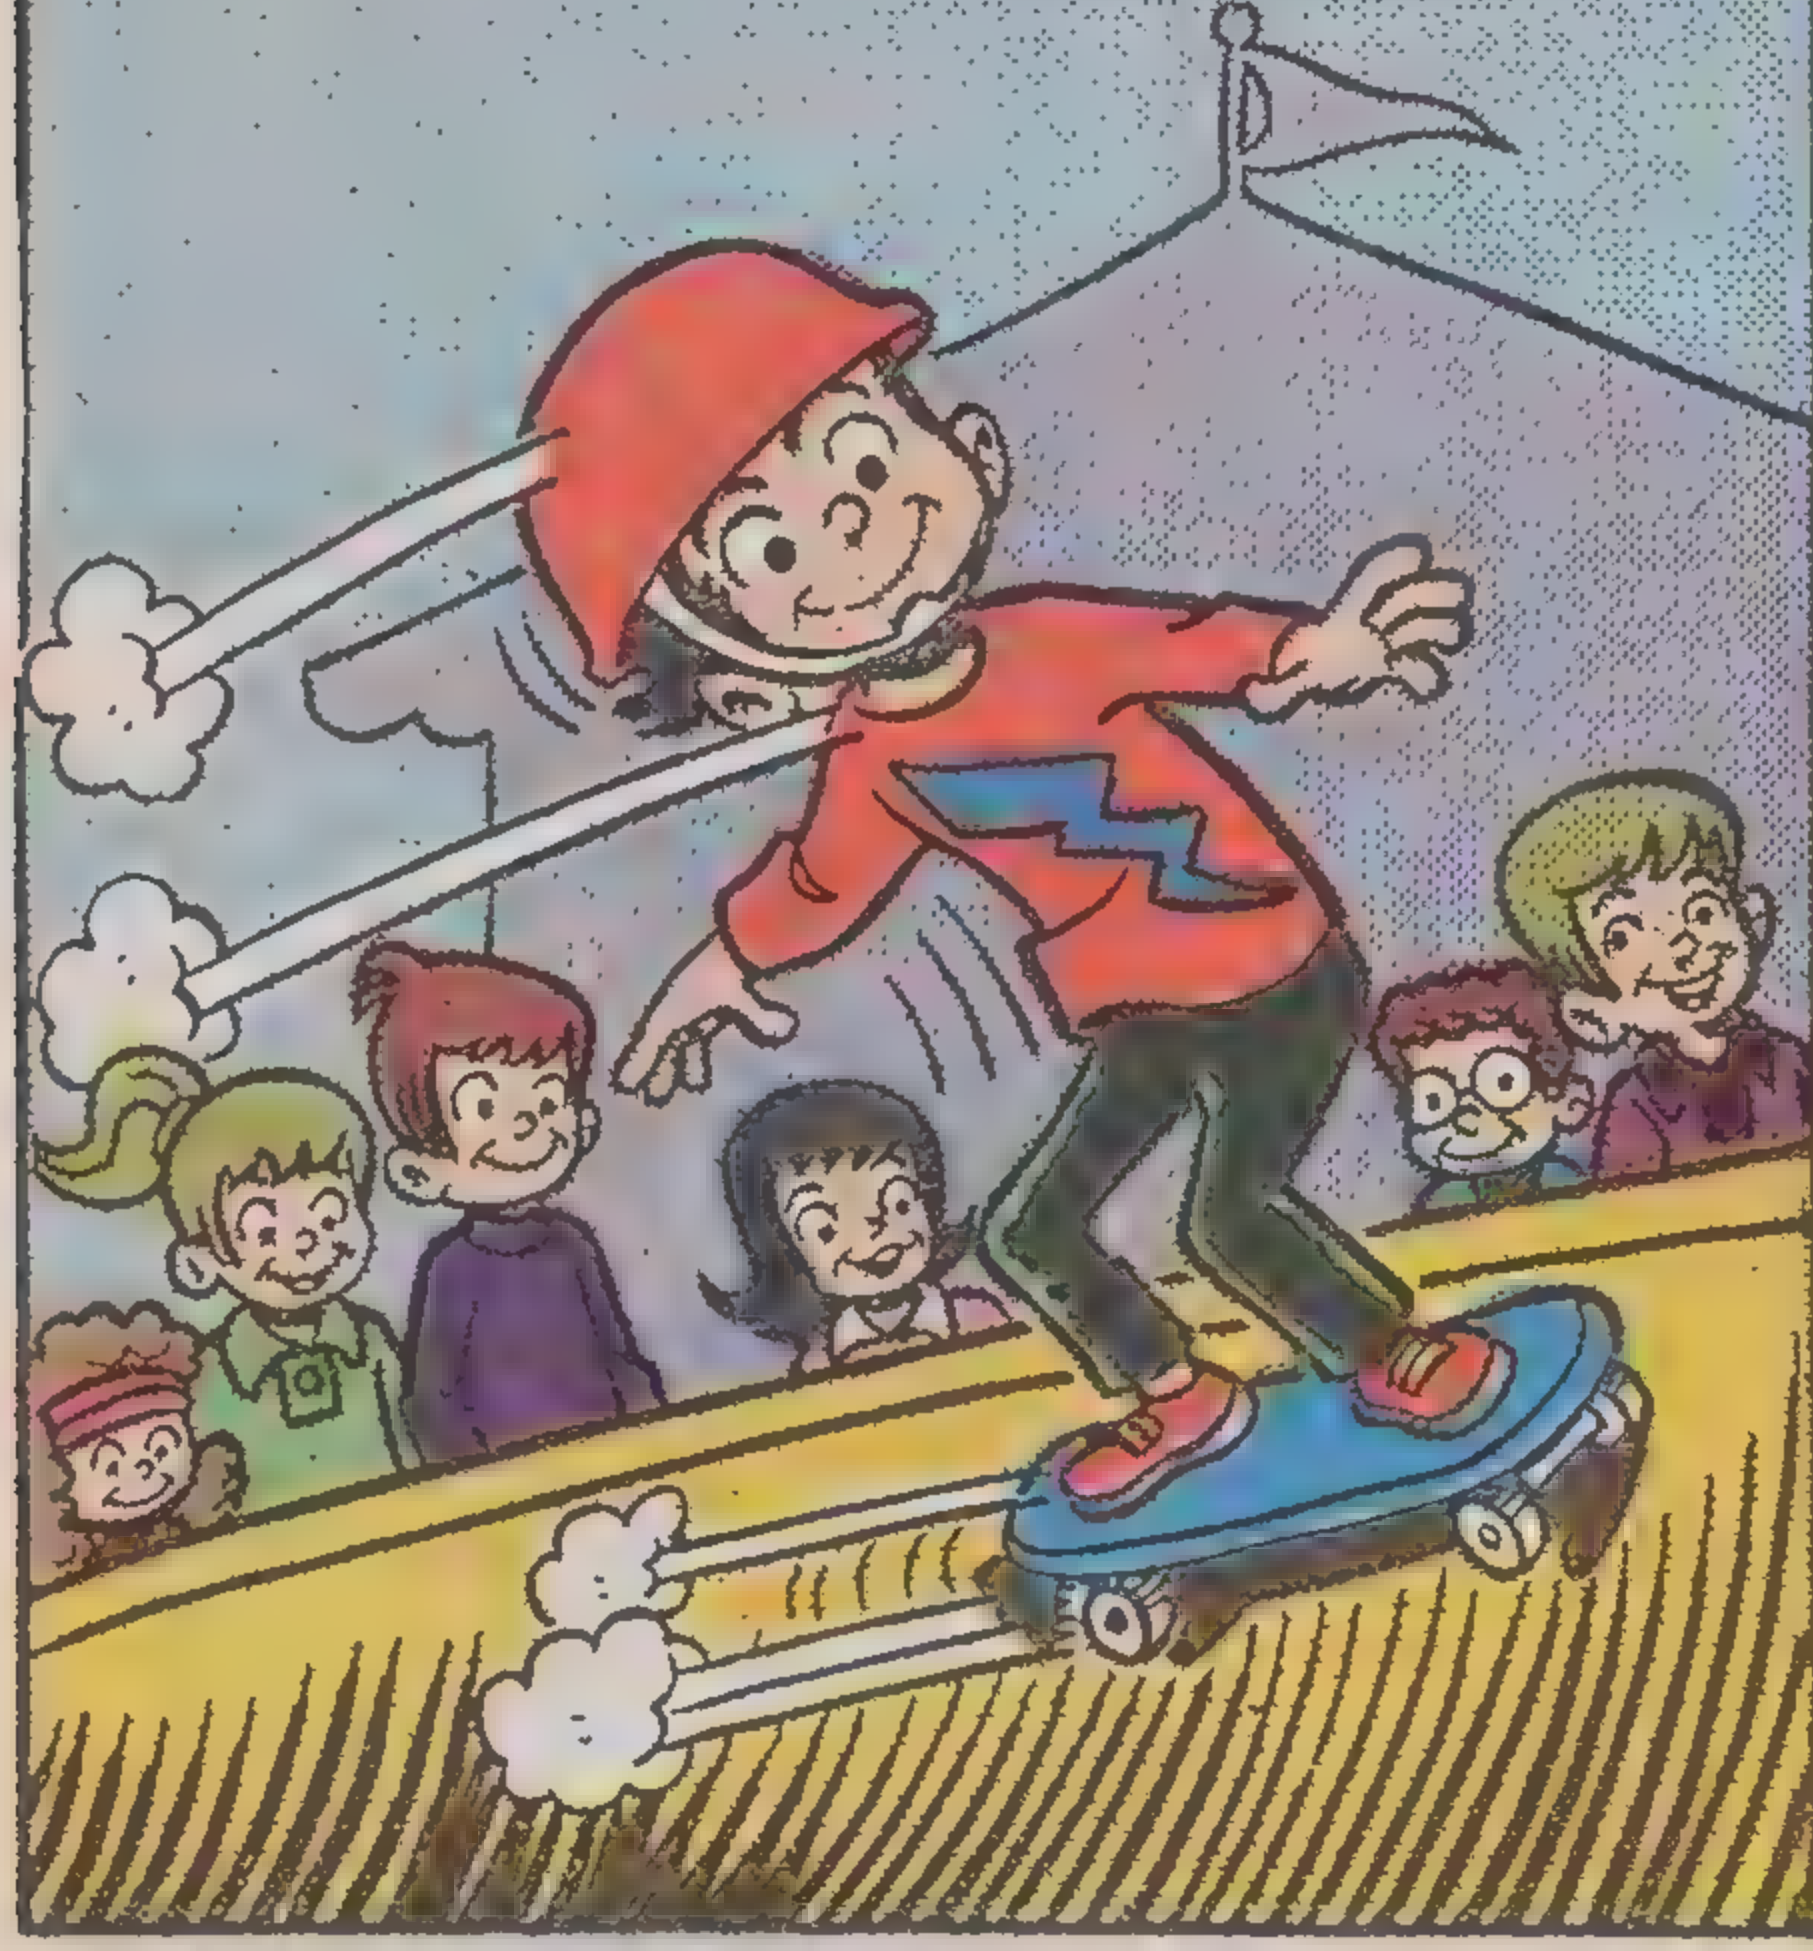

Dear Archie:

I'm one of your many Archie fans up here in Canada. We just had a festival in our area that featured a skateboard show in which the kids on skateboards were very good and did some fantastic stunts.

We also had a face painting contest, a hat making contest and the best T-shirt design.

The funniest contest was a Jello dive. People dove into a pool of Jello and tried to locate prizes in the Jello. They had a hard time picking up the prizes because everything was so slippery.

My friends and I had a good time at the festival.

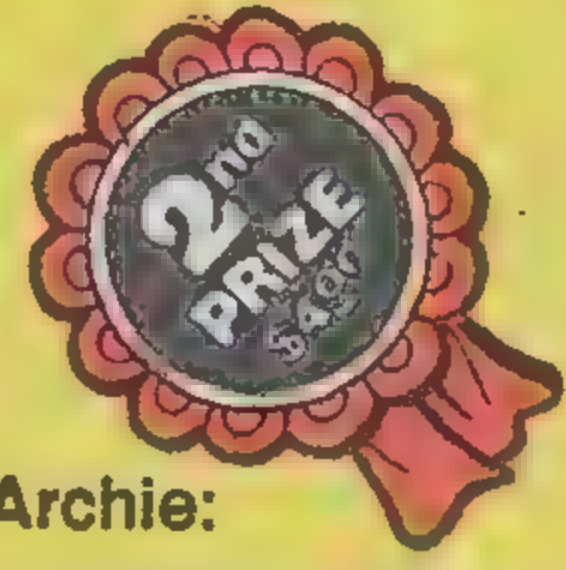

WE HAVE TERMITE SOUP, CREAMED ANT HILLS WITH FRENCH FRIED TERMITES AND FOR DESSERT IS CHOCOLATE COVERED ANTS!

SECOND PRIZE--$4.00
REPORTER
TED ROSATI

Dear Archie:

How many Archie Club readers have ever heard of the Aardvark? It is a very unusual animal. When it hears the slightest sound, it rolls into its shell.

The Aardvark is sometimes called the ant bear because of its strength and claws.

This animal loves ants and termites. When it reaches a nest of ants or termites, it rips open the nest and devours the tasty morsals.

The Aardvark measures up to four to six feet and an adult can weigh up to one hundred pounds.

I thought the Aardvark was a very interesting animal.
